

Literature and Our Lives

Yash Pratap

Questions

Crime and Punishments Fyodor Dostoevsky

Q1. What will happen to your psychology if you commit a murder of a person who is considered most useless?

The Death of Ivan Ilyich Leo Tolstoy

Q2. What will people around you actually say about you after your death if you follow all societal norms?

The Idiot Fyodor Dostoevsky

Q3. What will happen if you try to change the world without understanding it?

The Brother Karmazov Fyodor Dostoevsky

Q4. How feudalism created all social norms and institutionalized patriarchy?

Anna Karenina Leo Tolstoy

Q5. What will actually happen to you and society if you cross all limits for love?

The Trail Franz Kafka

Q6. Why is the average middle-class person so afraid of society?

The Metamorphosis Franz Kafka

Q7. Why is the middle class person so worried about taking care of their family?

The Second Sex Simone de Beauvoir

Q8. Why is a woman's psyche mostly constructed by social norms, not from her biological identity ?